JUST EATING? PRACTICING OUR FAITH AT THE TABLE

Study led by Shawn Cribari and Jean Post-Winget

Drawing on Jesus' story and the rituals of the Christian faith, this study will examine four aspects of our lives with food: the health of our bodies; the access others have to food; the health of the earth and how our food choices affect it; and the ways we use food to extend hospitality and enrich relationships.

Sundays, March 13, 20, 27, April 3, 10, 17, 9:30 am

SENIORS' LUNCH BUNCH will meet at 12 noon for lunch on the following schedule.

March 16: St. Patrick's Day lunch at Kirby's

April 20 & May 18: Potluck lunch at church. June 15: Lunch at 'The Cove', on the Hudson.

Jan Peek Volunteers: March 26: Diane Hawlk & the Marsh family. April 23:???Call Bud (245-6475). Thanks to the Confirmation Class for the February dinner.

A SPECIAL COFFEE HOUR: Coffee hour could use some treats! We all enjoy socializing at Coffee Hour but we can make it special if all of us at sometime could bring some cookies, coffee cake etc. You can leave your treat in the kitchen or even in the freezer marked "Coffee Hour". The Congregational Life Committee always needs a helping hand to continue the Coffee Hour tradition with treats, setting up the coffee and cleaning up. If you can give some time to help that would be fantastic.

The Operations Commission has set the date for its Annual Spring Cleanup. Mark your calendar for APRIL 16 from 8:00am-1:00pm with a Rain Date of April 30th.

As in previous years, we plan on clearing the effects of another winter on our gardens and lawns, re-positioning concrete parking bumpers, clearing the East Yard Cemetery, and giving Craig Hibben a jump start on the many plantings and planting beds that he maintains. Interior work will include giving all of the rooms and windows the once over, and cleaning and dusting off our beautiful Sanctuary.

The Annual Spring Cleanup is truly an example of many hands making light work. The Church will provide hamburgers, hot dogs and beverages for all, and you are invited to bring your favorite side dish.

The Operations Commission is in the process of evaluating the projects it plans to undertake and at this time is open to any suggestions. Should you identify anything that needs attention please call or leave a message with Ian Spence or Barbara Darragh (245-2186). Look for sign up sheets for the various tasks in the next few weeks and come prepared to spend an invigorating morning of wholesome work and conviviality.

Sanctuary is open: Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. for meditation or prayer.

GIVING UP GOD FOR LENT

Book Study led by Rev. Chip Low

Freud, Marx, and Neitzsche – all atheists – are perhaps the most influential thinkers of modern history. The book Suspicion & Faith by philosopher Merold Westphal asks some challenging questions. What if we took the atheists' critiques of Christianity seriously? What if we were willing to put aside our notions of God long enough to hear their arguments about self-serving functions of religious belief and practice? What if we just let God be God? Westphal, a committed Christian in the reformed tradition, argues that the atheists' call to repentance may be just what the Church needs!

Books available for purchase: Suspicion & Faith by Merold Westphal [$22]

Sunday, March 27: Special Worship Service & "Sermon for Lunch"

Merold Westphal will be our guest preacher and also join us after the 10:45 worship for lunch and a discussion of "the Religious uses of Modern Atheism."

Merold Westphal is Distinguished Professor of Philosophy at Fordham University, and an elder in the Reformed Church in America. He holds a Ph.D. from Yale University and has written numerous books and articles.

JUST EATING? PRACTICING OUR FAITH AT THE TABLE Study led by Shawn Cribari and Jean Post-Winget

We all spend a lot of time eating or preparing to eat, and the habits we form reflect our values and shape our lives. This study will help us better understand the relationship between our Christian heritage and our food. We will reflect on selected scripture, pray together, and dialog. Drawing on Jesus' story and the rituals of the Christian faith, this study will examine four aspects of our lives with food: the health of our bodies; the access others have to food; the health of the earth and how our food choices affect it; and the ways we use food to extend hospitality and enrich relationships.

Sunday mornings, March 13, 20, 27, April 3, 10, 17, 9:30 am

Sunday, April 10: "THE DEBT GAME"

An enlightening and fun experience in global economics. Join us after the 10:45 worship for lunch and to participate in playing an economic simulation game!

The Debt Game will help us to understand by actually experiencing it, what is meant by a shift into a global economy. We will participate in a simulation of the chain of events that have led to overwhelming debt in many parts of the world. Rev. Rick Ufford-Chase, Co-Director of Stony Point Center, will lead us through the game.
